

GREECE AGREES ALLIES MAY ACT FOR THEIR OWN SAFETY

Replies to Collective Note of Allied Powers, Agreeing
Not to Disarm the Allied
Forces Invading Greek
Territory

WILL ACCORD THEM
MANY PRIVILEGES

Will Give Them Liberty of Action on Greek Territory for Their Own Safety and Needed Transportation Facilities

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LONDON, Nov. 25.—The Greek government replied Wednesday to the allied powers' note, according to a dispatch to Reuters' Telegram Company. The note, it is understood that the reply agrees not to disarm the allied forces, gives them liberty of action on Greek territory for their own security and needs of railway and telegraphic facilities. The government only makes reserves regarding a further examination of certain details.

"The allies' declaration that any part of the Greek territory occupied by the allies will be restored in due course and any justifiable indemnities paid, has favorably impressed the Greek government. The situation is developing so well that the Greek steamer held up at Malta have been released. Difficulties are no longer placed on the transmission of commercial cables."

Note Is Friendly
PARIS, Nov. 24.—The collective note of the allies to the Greek government was expressed in friendly spirit and was general in character. It requested the Greek government, according to an Athens dispatch to the Havas agency, to confirm the assurances already given relative to the position of the allies' forces on Greek soil. The note asked for the earliest reply possible, under the circumstances.

Prior to the presentation of this note, the questions it dealt with were discussed at the luncheon given by King Constantine in honor of Denis Coghlin, member of the French cabinet. Mr. Coghlin's views were favorably received by the king, and no doubt appears to exist, the dispatch adds, that the Greek government will supply all the guarantees requested.

An Athens dispatch to the Havas agency dated Tuesday says:

"After the meeting of the Greek cabinet, which consisted of the joint note of the allies concerning Greece's attitude toward the allies' troops, it was said that the situation had been cleared, the demands of the allies' powers having been more moderate than was generally looked for in Greece. It is understood that the allies ask simply that Greece assure the security of the allied troops in Macedonia."

"The public has been officially informed that the situation is developing normally."

TIA JUANA RACES

Track Will Open New Year's With Six
Race Card

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 24.—James W. Coffroth, of San Francisco, president of the Lower California Jockey club, tonight announced that the winter meeting of the new Tia Juana, Mexico, track would open New Year's day with a card of six races and continue for a period of 100 days.

Other officials chosen today were: Jake Holman, Riverside general manager; Baron Long, Los Angeles, treasurer and H. A. Houser, San Diego, secretary.

Purses of $500 will be offered with added money for feature events. The "open book" will prevail, with all reputable book makers, owners and jockeys eligible to participate in the meet.

SIR McDONNELL DEAD

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LONDON, Nov. 25.—Sir Schomberg Kerr McDonnell, son of the Earl of Antrim, died last night from wounds received while fighting in the trenches Sunday.

Rejects Suggestions To Make Way For National Defense

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—President Wilson, it was learned tonight, has rejected various suggestions for incorporation in his next annual address to congress because of his desire to devote it primarily to the theme of national defense. In all probability he will address congress again later in the session, taking up other questions.

In reply to a letter from Representative Hamill of New Jersey, asking that civil service reform be

IMPROVEMENT NOTED IN RELATIONS BETWEEN GREECE AND THE ALLIES

While Greece Theoretically
Objects to Allied Troops
Entering Her Territory,
She Will Not Raise Finger
Against Them

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LONDON, Nov. 24.—There has been a distinct improvement in the diplomatic relations between Greece and the entente powers, following the presentation of a collective note by the representatives of the allies. The Greek premier is reported to have stated that while Greece put forward theoretical objections to allied troops entering Greek territory and using it as a victualing base, she would not raise a finger against them.

All that the allies are now waiting for is a guarantee that Greece will carry out this assurance. On the military side, the Balkans; on the other hand, especially so far as the Serbian northern army is concerned, the situation has grown graver. Austro-German and Bulgarian troops, operating in three separate columns have entered Kosovo plain, where the Serbians are expected to make their last stand, and have occupied Mitrovica, the latest Serbian capital, as well as Pristina, and at one point at least have driven the Serbians across the Sittica river, which drains the valley.

Although the Serbians might make a stand between the valley and the Albanian and Montenegrin frontiers, they will be at a great disadvantage, owing to their inability to get munitions and supplies, while their opponents will have virtually everything they require.

The Serbians on the Katchank front, and also in the southwest corner of their country continue to hold back the invaders, as do the Anglo-French forces in the southeast. The Russians are reported to have prepared an army of 250,000 for operations in the Balkans, but the point away they will strike has not been indicated.

While the allies are showing renewed activity in Gallipoli, the most important engagements are taking place on the Austro-Italian front, and while the war has not yet fallen, it has been rendered untenable, a fate which, likewise appears to be awaiting Riva, in the Trentino. The station at Riva has come within range of the Italian guns. This latter information contained in the Vienna official communication gives some confirmation to the rumors that Rovereto has been evacuated by the Austrians.

There have been no important events on either the western or eastern front.

RUMANIA TO INTERVENE

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
GENEVA, via Paris, Nov. 24.—The Bucharest correspondent of the Geneva Tribune sends a dispatch in which Take Jonsescu, a former member of the Rumanian cabinet and leader of the liberal party in Rumania, is quoted as expressing the belief that the Rumanian government is desirous of following the national policy and soon will intervene in the war on the side of the entente powers.

REV. NEWELL DWIGHT HILLIS SUES HIS FINANCIAL ADVISOR

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, noted preacher and lecturer, who is pastor of Plymouth church, took action today in his controversy with Frank L. Ferguson, an attorney, by filing a suit here against Ferguson, who was formerly financial adviser to Dr. Hillis. Dr. Hillis asks an accounting, the return of property alleged to be held by Mr. Ferguson, the appointment of a receiver for the property held by Ferguson and an injunction against Ferguson preventing him from disposing of the property during the life of the action. In his bill Dr. Hillis alleges that on June 14, 1910 at Mr. Ferguson's suggestion he gave the attorney, a power of attorney over certain real estate and property in Canada valued at upwards of $100,000. Dr. Hillis says he also gave Ferguson a signed promissory note in blank, which the attorney, Ferguson, turned to his personal use. The bill alleges that Ferguson exchanged the property for stocks and bonds in a corporation which Ferguson organized for the purpose without Dr. Hillis' knowledge and permission. On February 12, of this year Dr. Hillis says he revoked the power of attorney and demanded an accounting. Ferguson's accounting, the bill declares, was incorrect. The congregation of Plymouth church has pledged its support to its pastor in the controversy with Mr. Ferguson, who is a former president of the board of trustees of the church.

GIVES DEATH PELLETS TO THREE TOTS

BAKER, Ore., Nov. 24.—Calling his three daughters, aged 4, 6 and 8 years old from their mother, George L. Huffman, a rancher living three miles south of Prairie City, near here, took them into a bed room tonight, sat them in a row on the bed and gave each a capsule containing a powerful poison. He took the fourth pellet himself. All died in a few minutes. Mrs. Huffman appeared too late to be of assistance. The distracted mother thought she saw signs of life in one of the children and tried to restore it but without success. Huffman left a note addressed to a sister at Union, Oregon saying that everything had gone against him and that he had planned the act for years. It is believed that business reverses had caused his despondency.

SAY "NO BEER, THEN NO WORK"

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LONDON, Nov. 24.—"No beer before dinner, no work before dinner," is the cry of the London trade unionists who are organizing to resist the regulations shortening the hours during which saloons may be kept open. Meetings were held in different parts of the city tonight to protest against the new regulations, and delegates were appointed to attend a conference to be held Saturday to decide what action the unions will take to defeat the regulations to come into effect next Monday.

THREE DEAD IN TRAIN SMASH

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
GREENSBORO, N. C., Nov. 24.—Three persons were killed and several injured late tonight when the Southern Railway's fast northbound passenger train struck a special train in the yards at Salisbury, according to reports reaching here by telephone. The special carried North Carolinians bound for Richmond to witness the North Carolina-Virginia football game tomorrow.

Ask Italians For Information On The Ancona

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
ROME, Nov. 24.—The American ambassador, Thomas Nelson Page has requested the Italian government to inform him as to the result of the investigation made by the Italian authorities into the circumstances attending the sinking of the Italian liner steamer Ancona, which was torpedoed on November 9 in the Mediterranean by a submarine.

At the same time the naval attaché of the embassy, Lieutenant Commander Charles R. Train, is getting sworn statements by the survivors of the Ancona with a view of establishing the nationality of the submarine and the facts connected with the loss of the steamer.

Dr. Cecile L. Griel, of New York, the only American born passenger on the Ancona, interrogated by the American consul at Naples, day White, and Lieutenant Commander Jackson, repeated under oath the story told previously by her at the shelling of the steamer and the panic among the passengers.

REPORT FOOD RIOTS IN POLAND

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LONDON, Nov. 24.—A dispatch from Amsterdam to the Exchange Telegraph company says: "Food riots are frequent in Poland. The shortage of supplies is so great in the towns around Warsaw that even the wealthy are unable to obtain sufficient food. As a consequence the outbreaks are of almost daily occurrence and involve fighting between civilians and the German troops."

"The situation has been made worse by the refusal of General von Beaulieu, governor general of Poland, to allow the Polish relief committee to work except under German control, to which the committee declines to assent. The mortality among children has doubled since the cold weather began."

DIVORCED FROM LONDON'S SISTER

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
SANTA ROSA, Nov. 24.—J. H. Shepard was granted a divorce today on the grounds of the husband's desertion, from Mrs. Eliza Shepard, a sister of Jack London, the writer. London, who was a witness for his sister, testified that he had given Mrs. Shepard large sums of money. "I gave her the money," he said, "because she befriended me when I was a youngster, even sharing her last dime with me, and at that time I took an oath that if ever in a position to do so, I would repay her a thousand fold."

Mrs. Shepard, he said, had been manager of his stock ranch near Glen Ellen, California, for several years.

VILLA SOLDIERS HURL INSULTS OVER BORDER WHEN FOOD IS STOPPED

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NOGALES, Nov. 24.—A demonstration by Villa cavalrymen at the international boundary late today, during which insults were hurled at United States troops, was quickly followed by orders which placed the entire Twelfth Infantry under arms and resulted in a barrier of American soldiers hurriedly stretched along the line dividing this and the Mexican town in Sonora of the same name.

Simultaneously other detachments of United States soldiers set about clearing the streets on this side. While they were thus engaged reports were received that the saloons on the Mexican side had been closed and all Americans driven out of them at the point of guns.

The military refused to allow anyone to approach closer than within a block of the boundary. Despite this precaution several Mexicans were reported to have eluded the guards by making wide detours.

The trouble has been brewing all day and grew out of two reports which had increased the Villa officers and Villa sympathizers. The first was that early today United States customs officials had sought to prevent the entry into Mexico of foodstuffs, the other that General Alvaro Obregon was advancing rapidly upon Nogales, Sonora, from along the American side.

It was predicted that looting might be attempted during the night and also that a battle was imminent between the Villa forces in Nogales, reinforced by those of General Rodriguez, and General Obregon, who was reported driving Rodriguez men in before his army.

When the trouble which prompted the placing of the soldier-barrier along the line was at its height, passports which had been countersigned by Acting Governor Carlos Randall were refused by Villa officers. This followed the statement by Governor Randall that the Villa forces were intoxicated.

The action of the Villa cavalrymen was coupled with a drunken demonstration occurring at 5:30 o'clock, said to have been the outgrowth of the reported withholding of foodstuffs from entry into Mexico by United States customs officials early today.

A report was circulated that the forces of General Alvaro Obregon were being allowed to advance upon Nogales, Sonora, along the American side. This served to increase the temper of the Villa officials and sympathizers. Several of the latter are said to have eluded the United States troops by making wide detours across the line to Naco.

It was explained that the patrols were being placed and the guards throughout the city on this side of the line increased as a precaution against threatened looting.

Passes countersigned by Acting Governor Randall were repudiated on the Sonora side by the Villa officers. In at least one instance one of these passes was torn and the pieces scattered by a Villa officer who expressed his opinion of the acting governor with oaths.

That a battle is imminent between the Rodriguez forces, reinforced by the Villa troops in Nogales, Sonora, and the troops under the Carranza commander was the belief expressed on all sides.

The prediction is made that the clash will not be delayed long and may occur tomorrow morning. No definite information is obtainable, however, of the approach of General Obregon's force to the Sonora town opposite here.

Again Attack Hermosillo
DOUGLAS, Nov. 24.—The forces of General Francisco Villa, reported repulsed recently after a bombardment of Hermosillo, the capital of Sonora, have resumed the attack on the city and engaged in a bloody battle in its suburbs the forces of General Dieguez, the Carranza defender. Wireless reports of the attack, dated yesterday, were received by General Obregon, commander in chief today. The outcome of the engagement was unknown here.

A readjustment of the campaign of

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LONDON, Nov. 24.—It develops from special dispatches from the British headquarters in France that John Redmond, nationalist member of parliament, was taken as a prisoner to visit King Albert. The last day of his trip was allotted to an inspection of the Belgian lines. When Mr. Redmond's automobile, containing himself and his son, arrived at the junction of the Belgian lines, a sentry refused to allow it to pass on the ground that Mr. Redmond's papers were not in order. Mr. Redmond protested violently.

Finally the difficulty was solved by Mr. Redmond suggesting that he be put under arrest and escorted by an armed soldier, sitting behind the driver, to headquarters. Once at headquarters Mr. Redmond's difficulties were at an end. He held a long and earnest conversation with King

Albert and assured him, as has been previously stated, that the Irish people never would entertain a thought of peace until Belgium was liberated.

DEATH CLAIMS EX-GOVERNOR LOUIS C. HUGHES

Former Chief Executive of State of Arizona Passes
Away Yesterday Evening
at His Tucson Home Following Short Illness

WAS RETIRED
EDITOR AND MINER

Founded Tucson Star in 1878 and Was for Long
Time Big Factor in Shaping
Destinies of Territory
In Its Troublous Times

(Special to The Republican)
TUCSON, Ariz., Nov. 24.—Louis C. Hughes, former territorial governor of the state of Arizona, died at his home here at nine o'clock tonight, his death having followed one week's illness from pneumonia. He was 73 years of age and is survived by his widow, one son, ex-Senator John T. Hughes, and one daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Woodward. No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

L. C. Hughes was born at Philadelphia on May 15, 1842 and a few months afterwards the family removed to Pittsburgh. He became an orphan at the age of two years, and was placed in a Presbyterian orphanage, where he remained until he was ten years of age. Afterwards he was indentured to a farmer, with whom he spent several years. At the outbreak of the civil war he attempted to enlist in the federal army, but was rejected on account of his diminutive stature. Later, however, he succeeded in raising a company of young men from his neighborhood, and entered the strife under the title of Company A, 1st Arizona Infantry Volunteers. He served for two years at the front and was granted an honorable discharge owing to disabilities. He soon afterwards entered a government machine shop and learned his trade, and was the organizer of one of the first trades unions among the iron workers at Pittsburgh. Sometimes later he assisted in the organization of the fraternal order known as the Ancient Order of United Workmen, of which he was a member of the first lodge in Arizona.

At the same time Mr. Hughes had been studying law at Meadville, Pa. In 1871, his health began to give away, and he sought the great west as a cure for his troubles. He came to Tucson three months later, and found it a land of fierce Apaches, desert and sunshine, and here he entered into the practice of his chosen profession. Later he was in turn appointed probate judge, and then, in 1878, he was elected to the state senate, where he served for two terms; attorney general; United States court commissioner; member of the board of world's fair commissioners to Chicago, from Arizona, and was a delegate to the democratic national conventions in 1884 and 1892.

In 1878 he established the Arizona Star at Tucson, the first daily paper in the territory, which he continued to operate for a period of thirty years. When the Arizona Press association was organized in 1892, Mr. Hughes was selected as its first president. Following the establishment of the Star, the editor began a most active campaign for the removal of the blood-thirsty Apaches from the state. In his opinion, one of the greatest steps that could be taken toward the upbuilding of the state was the elimination of the Indian tribes whose depredations were preventing the state from becoming thickly populated. His plan provided for the removal of the leaders of the tribes to the Everglades country of Florida, and at the same time a national convention in 1884 he caused a plank to be placed in the platform declaring for the removal policy. Following the election of Cleveland to the presidency in that year, the policy was put into practice, and General Miles was sent to this state to rid it of the warlike redskins.

The Star and its editor then continued to be staunch advocates of prohibition, women's suffrage and the enactment of anti-gambling laws, all of which Mr. Hughes lived to see accomplished in his state. He succeeded in getting an anti-gambling bill through the lower house of congress, but action was suspended on the measure because the territorial legislatures of both Arizona and New Mexico had passed anti-gambling statutes.

Mr. Hughes was appointed territorial

Chinese Woman Found With Twelve Inch Stiletto in Body

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—The body of Chin Yew Moy, wife of a well-to-do Chinese merchant, was found by residents of the quarter, who, attracted by the woman's screams, rushed into the house. As they entered a Chinese ran from the place and disappeared.

Chin Yew Moy, the police learned, was the wife of Gee Chong Fong. They formerly lived in Sacramento, but came here about a month ago and established a home in the Chinese quarter. Chin Yew Moy, according to the police, left her husband three weeks ago and since had been living alone in another part of Chinatown, in the house where her dead body was found tonight.